It's important to note that, while the game is indeed free, it contains a decent amount of additional content that must be purchased using an in-game premium currency known as Robux. As with many other free-to-play games, Roblox also contains a microtransaction system. The in-game Roblox currency is known as Robux and it can be obtained using real money. Robux can be used for a variety of things, for buying cosmetics, and many other things.

The first tier is $4.99 a month and gives a monthly stipend of free 450 Robux. The second tier is $9.99 a month and gives a stipend of free 1,000 Robux. Finally, the third tier is $19.99 a month and gives a stipend of free 2,200 Robux. The bonuses for being a member more than make up for the monthly membership price, so we consider the monthly Robux stipend a way of getting free Robux.

Bronstein says virtual fashion is “huge” within the Roblox community. “People can also be whoever they want to be on the platform, and this authenticity is an important part of their self-expression, be it in real life or in the Metaverse.” He points to the recent Gucci Garden event, which saw a virtual bag eventually sell for around $4,115. Its physical counterpart costs $3,400. The bag cannot be transferred out of Roblox, suggesting that some users place primacy on how their avatars look over being able to flaunt these items in the physical world. Plenty of brands have started selling legally licensed digital product replicas, including Nike Air Max trainers and NFL merchandise.

Roblox has big plans for other virtual music events as it works to realize its version of a metaverse. At the end of March, rock duo Royal Blood performed during the in-game “Bloxys” awards and premiered a new song. Also, Roblox would really like not to get sued over music rights, so it just signed deals with Sony and BMG.

Getting your account hijacked by hackers is yet another downside that prevents most people from using free Robux generators.

Luckily, there are some other safe ways to get Robux that are recommended by Roblox themselves. It might take some work on your part, or the opening of your wallet if you want to add some Robux to your Roblox account.

While it's always an option to directly purchase Robux from the in-game store with real money, one can also create custom items and even host their own games to bring in the big bucks. It takes some effort, but it's a great option for players wanting a little more premium currency.

Decentraland is another Metaverse candidate that grapples with this very issue. Dave Carr of the Decentraland Foundation tells me that the founders decided that “rather than have these environments be controlled by central bodies, they should have a decentralised structure and be open to everyone to own and govern.” From economic matters, to content moderation and even the maintenance of its servers, Decentraland’s user base dictates its entire policy course through regular votes.

Tix, also known as Tickets was a currency that was present almost since its launch. Tix didn't cost money, and players could earn by it logging in daily, visiting their Place, and a number of other ways. Tix could also be converted into Robux which is something players used to do a lot. Considering that it was just a free way to earn Robux, people started creating alternate accounts to get more Robux, and it almost entirely killed the point of Robux.
